

July 24, 1900

L A I D T O R E S T.

July 24, 1900
The remains of the late Mrs. Maud Sanders arrived Saturday evening and were taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. A. S. Palmer, where the funeral was held Sunday afternoon. An impressive ceremony was conducted by Rev. McKay, of the Episcopal church. The Masonic order of this city acted as a guard of honor and with a large concourse followed the remains to Union cemetery where interment was held.

Mrs. Sanders' death was caused by acute spinal and heart trouble, and worry over the illness of her little daughter, Mildred, who was very low with inflammation of the bowels at that time, seems to have hastened death. The little daughter is being cared for at the home of R. H. Foster, at Kenosha, Wis., and is recovering.